Red Wines

France-Bordeaux

100 Chateau Majureau-Sercillan, Bordeaux Superieur, 2003 £32.95
. The wine is drinking well now being made with 60% Merlot in the blend. A really excellent value for money Claret with good, rich flavours and some grip on the finish.

101 Corney & Barrow Company reserve, 2005 £35.95
Rich and full-bodied blended by Ets J-P Moueix from three regions in Bordeaux, this vintage shows ripe fruits and a complimentary, more serious minerality.

102 Chateau de Lamarque, Haut-Medoc, 2004 £45.95
Beautifully balanced Bordeaux that is just a joy to taste. The estate consistently delivers benchmark Haut-Medoc with its cassis and herbal nose, muscular palate and long, beautifully opulent length.

103 Chateau Franc-Maillet, Pomerol, 2006 £55.00
Excellent mainly Merlot. Big, rich well made, long flavoured wine. Earthy flavours of plum and black fruit.

105 Chateau Lagrange, 3eme cru classe, St-Julien, 1996 £85.00
Impressive depth of flavour welded to plenty of tannin, toasty new oak and an underlying succulence of fatness and style.

France – Beaujolais

106 Fleurie, Domaine Berrod, 2009 £33.50
Seriously good Fleurie, fresh strawberry and blackberry aromas, smoky minerals. Really ripe juicy fruit, refreshing with good clarity and bite.

France- Languedoc

110 Chateau Peuch Haut, Gerard Bru, 2005 £46.95
Owned by Pol Roger, this big full bodied wine is made from a blend of 70% Syrah, 25% Carignan and 5% Grenache. A great alternative to the top Rhone and super Tuscan reds.

France- Burgundy

111 Hautes-Cotes de Beaune, Domaine Naudin Ferrand, 2007 £35.95
The wine has striking redcurrant aromas, fresh and lively on the palate with good structured tannins and a broad round finish.

This Domaine produces ageworthy wines, bottled at 18 months. Delicious, silky tannins.

113 Gevrey Chambertin, Clos des Varoilles, 2001 £60.00

Regarded as one of the finest most long-lived of the 1er cru vineyards. This is an outstanding wine that sits between two very powerful, muscular vintages, harmonious and beautifully balanced with rich red fruits, touches of violets and liquorice and silky tannins.

114 Beaune 1er cru, Les Teurons, Domaine Rossignol-Trapet, 2008 £65.95

This estate has been run by the same family for several generations from the very heart of Burgundy, Gevrey -Chambertin.

116 Nuits-Saint- Georges 1er cru, Clos de L'Arlot, Domaine L'Arlot, 2002 £80.00

The epitome of classic Pinot Noir drinking pleasure from this fine domaine- finesse, silky tannins, fresh acidity, outstanding purity and concentration without harshness.

117 Chambolle Musigny, Domaines Comte Georges de Vogue, 200 £145.00

Their remains very little to say about this outstanding Domaine. The brilliance of the winemaking can sometimes be lost amongst the hype and reputation of their wines. The 2005 from a parcel of 1.8 ha of vines, is an astonishing wine and a joy to drink!

France-Rhone and Provence

129 Lirac, Chateau de Segries, 2007 £29.95

Deep ripe and fruity, our most popular house wine for years, so popular the price has nearly doubled, couldn't bear to lose it so moved it to the main list!

130 Crozes Hermitage, Etienne Barret, 2008 £32.50

A rejuvenated company! Excellent Syrah, rich balance of black fruit, pepper and leather. Not too heavy a rhone wine.

131 Gigondas, Font Sante, 2007 £37.95

Spicy, fruity, peppery, full-bodied and smooth. Best Gigondas we have tasted.

129 Chateauneuf du Pape, Domaine Duclaux, 2005 £45.50

An old favourite! Big and well suited to beef and venison, also cheese.

Meaty, full bodied and velvety, a huge elegant wine.*

148 Duas Quintas Douro Tinto, Ramos Pinto, Portugal ,2008 £27.95
*Amazing red wine from the Douro Valley.Tastes like Port with the spirit removed.
Really ripe and fruity a good vintage!*

AUSTRALIA

150 Scuttlebut, Shiraz -Cabernet Sauvignon, Margaret River, 2008 24.95
Produced by the very well renowned Stella Bella winery. This is a big, fruity dangerously easy drinking wine, ripe fruits wrapped in silk!

152 Graeme's Blend, Passing Clouds, Bendigo, 2004 £45.00
Graeme Leith is the winemaker here, a blend of Shiraz and Cabernet Sauvignon. Berries, chocolate and liquorish with a touch of oak, a big wine ! Very limited amount made so stocks are low.

154 Shiraz "Angels Share", Two Hands, Barossa Valley, 2009 £48.95
Recently voted as the top Aussie Shiraz! Brilliantly opulent fruit with juicy brambles and blackcurrant notes followed by rich creamy palate and long succulent finish.

155 Pinot Noir, The Bonython, Barratt, Adelaide Hills, 2007 £55.95
Produced from predominantly 10 year old vines, hand crafted from vineyard to bottle, it shows strawberry and cherry fruit characters, developing progressively over time.

New Zealand

156 Tinpot Hut Syrah, Hawkes Bay, 2007 £33.95
This is Fiona turners first solo venture after making wine in Marlborough for years. Originally from Kingussie, she has made this stunning wine with a pepper and spice nose, with cooler climate characteristics, so not too heavy in alcohol.

157 Burnt Spur Pinot Noir, Martinborough, 2009 £36.95
A single vineyard estate wine shows ripe plum and floral spicy notes with a concentrated savoury texture.

158 Mount Difficulty Pinot Noir ,Central Otago 2008, £55.00
